SENATE BILL No. 411

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning utilities and transportation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. IC 5-14-1.5-6.1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.37-2000,
- 2 SECTION 1, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
- 3 JULY 1, 2002]: Sec. 6.1. (a) As used in this section, "public official"
- 4 means a person:
  - 5 (1) who is a member of a governing body of a public agency; or
  - 6 (2) whose tenure and compensation are fixed by law and who
  - 7 executes an oath.
- 8 (b) Executive sessions may be held only in the following instances:
  - 9 (1) Where authorized by federal or state statute.
  - 10 (2) For discussion of strategy with respect to any of the following:
    - 11 (A) Collective bargaining.
    - 12 (B) Initiation of litigation or litigation that is either pending or
    - 13 has been threatened specifically in writing.
    - 14 (C) The implementation of security systems.
    - 15 (D) The purchase or lease of real property by the governing
    - 16 body up to the time a contract or option to purchase or lease is
    - 17 executed by the parties.

However, all such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.

(3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.

(4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by the department of commerce, the Indiana development finance authority, the film commission, the Indiana business modernization and technology corporation, or economic development commissions.

(5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.

(6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:

(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct; and

(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician.

(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.

(8) To discuss before a placement decision an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.

(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.

(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:

(A) Develop a list of prospective appointees.

(B) Consider applications.

(C) Make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.

Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.

(11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.

(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 15-5-1.1 or IC 25.

(13) To discuss a public utility rate case.

(c) A final action must be taken at a meeting open to the public.

(d) Public notice of executive sessions must state the subject matter by specific reference to the enumerated instance or instances for which executive sessions may be held under subsection (b). The requirements stated in section 4 of this chapter for memoranda and minutes being made available to the public is modified as to executive sessions in that the memoranda and minutes must identify the subject matter considered by specific reference to the enumerated instance or instances for which public notice was given. The governing body shall certify by a statement in the memoranda and minutes of the governing body that no subject matter was discussed in the executive session other than the subject matter specified in the public notice.

(e) A governing body may not conduct an executive session during a meeting, except as otherwise permitted by applicable statute. A meeting may not be recessed and reconvened with the intent of circumventing this subsection.

SECTION 2. IC 8-1-1-5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2002]: Sec. 5. (a) The commission shall in all controversial proceedings heard by it be an impartial fact-finding body and shall make its orders in such cases upon the facts impartially found by it. The commission shall in no such proceeding, during the hearing, act in the role either of a proponent or opponent on any issue to be decided by it. All evidence given in any such proceeding shall be offered on behalf of the respective parties to, or appearing in, the proceeding and not in the name or behalf of the commission itself.

(b) Any report, audit, examination, or analysis prepared by the commission staff or an agent of the commission at the request or direction of the commission may be made a part of the record of the proceeding, subject to cross-examination by any party of the person who performed or directed the preparation of the report, audit, examination or analysis. Any report, audit, examination, analysis, or recommendation that:

(1) is prepared by the commission staff or an agent of the commission and communicated to the commission or an administrative law judge;

(2) concerns an issue of fact or law in an adjudicatory proceeding; and

(3) is not made part of the record of the proceeding; must be served by the commission or an administrative law judge on all parties to the proceeding not less than ten (10) days before a final order is issued in the proceeding.

(c) If in any such proceeding the public interest is not otherwise adequately represented by counsel, in the opinion of the commission, it shall be the duty of the utility consumer counselor, if requested by the commission, to make adequate preparation for the presentation of the interests of the public in such proceeding and ~~he~~ the utility consumer counselor shall at the hearing represent the public interests therein involved.

(d) However, nothing in this section prevents the commission from instituting, prosecuting, hearing, or determining any investigation or proceeding which it is authorized to do, or make, on its own motion by any law with the administration of which it is charged.

(e) ~~Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no member or A commissioner, an administrative law judge, a staff employee of the commission, or an agent of the commission assigned to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a formally docketed evidentiary proceeding may not communicate in connection with any issue of fact, or law, or policy disputed in that proceeding with any party or his a party's representative, except on notice and with opportunity for all parties to participate. unless the party agrees to report the communication in the manner provided in this subsection, and regardless of whether the communication is initiated by the party or the party's representative or by the commissioner, administrative law judge, staff employee, or agent. A party shall report a communication described in this subsection not later than three (3) working days after the date on which the communication occurs by submitting a notice of ex parte communication to the administrative law judge or commissioner assigned to the proceeding and to the secretary of the commission for inclusion in the public record. A notice provided under this subsection must include the following information:~~

(1) The date, time, and location of the communication and whether it was oral, written, or oral and written.

(2) The identity of:

(A) all participants in the communication;

(B) the person initiating the communication; and

(C) any other persons present during the communication.

(3) A description of the communication and a summary of the content of communication.

The party shall attach to the notice required under this subsection a copy of any written material or text used during the communication.

(f) A person who violates this section ~~commits a Class C infraction.~~ is subject to sanctions, disciplinary action, or other remedial action as follows:

(1) If the person is a party to a proceeding under this section and the person:

(A) directly or indirectly violates or causes the violation of this section; or

(B) fails to report to the commission the facts and circumstances concerning any violation of this section;

the person, after notice and hearing, may be disqualified by the commission from further participation in the proceeding.

In a proceeding other than a rulemaking proceeding, the commission may require the person to show cause why the person's claim or interest in the proceeding should not be dismissed, denied, disregarded, or otherwise adversely affected. In any proceeding, the commission may impose any alternative or additional sanctions upon the person as the commission considers appropriate.

(2) If the person is a staff employee or an agent of the commission, the person is subject to any disciplinary or other remedial action that the commission considers appropriate.

(3) For all other persons, the commission may impose any sanctions or other remedial actions that the commission considers appropriate under the circumstances of the violation.
